PRIDES to plant trees on Arbor Day

The public is invited to attend The Sun City PRIDES' Arbor Day celebration 10 a.m. Thursday, April 27 near 111th and Peoria avenues.

Volunteers who have passed during the last year will be honored. They include Don Avery, Richard Bondon, Bonnie Mirick and Faye Pitts. All were dedicated volunteers highly appreciated for their efforts to keep Sun City beautiful. Maricopa County District 4 Supervisor Clint Hickman is expected to be in attendance. Oscar Pena of Maricopa County Department of Transportation will direct planting the trees provided by Linden Nurserv, and the Bell Metal Club made markers for them.

Family and friends are welcome. Attendees can grab a shovel to toss a symbolic clod of dirt on the trees.

National Library Week is April 9-15

National Library Week, April 9-15, is a country-wide observance sponsored by the American Library Association and libraries across the country each April.
